

CT Manufacturing. The Facts.

$24.1 billion

Connecticut manufacturing GDP, 2008¹

5,145

Number of manufacturing businesses in Connecticut in 2008²

13.6%

Manufacturing output as % of CT GDP, 2008¹

190,829

Number of people employed by Connecticut manufacturing in 2008¹

$13.2 billion

Connecticut advanced manufacturing GDP, 2008¹

1.7 million

Total number of employed in Connecticut, 2008¹

7.5%

Advanced manufacturing output as % of Connecticut GDP, 2008¹

11.32%

Manufacturing jobs as % of the Connecticut labor force in 2008¹

90%

Percentage of all "high tech" industries, as identified by the federal government, that fall within the manufacturing sector¹

68%

Advanced manufacturing jobs as % of Connecticut manufacturing jobs in 2008¹

$28 billion

Goods and services purchased by Connecticut manufacturers from other Connecticut businesses in 2008.³

130,552

Number of people employed in advanced manufacturing in Connecticut¹

75

Number of manufacturing businesses lost in Connecticut between 2007 and 2008²

$70,564

Average annual salary for Connecticut manufacturing jobs in 2008²

4,071

Number of manufacturing jobs lost in Connecticut between 2007 and 2008²

1,348

Number of fabricated metal product manufacturing businesses in Connecticut in 2008²

557

Number of machinery manufacturing business in Connecticut in 2008²

450

Number of printing businesses in Connecticut in 2008²

¹ "Reexamining Advanced Manufacturing in a Networked World," New England Council and Deloitte Consulting LLP, 2009

² The Connecticut Economic Digest, Connecticut Department of Labor and the Connecticut Department of Economic and Community Development, August 2009

³ Connecticut Economic Resource Center (CERC)